

Iron Wind Metals is proud to announce the release of the CHAOS WARS Rules Set and Miniatures Line. Our kickstarter successfully funded the re-release of over 50 of Tom Meier's classic Elves, Orcs, and Goblins.

Iron Wind Metals is now in full swing, preparing to offer over 1,200 additional great fantasy miniatures to the gaming community, in the form of Regiment Sets, Bulk Packs, and Single Figures. Our goal is to expand the line with new sculpts, making the types of fantasy miniatures that gamers dream about.

Kickstarter Miniatures Available Before Christmas!

When we complete fulfilling our kickstarter this fall, we will then be offering the miniatures directly to stores.

Be sure to ask about CHAOS WARS at your local hobby store. If retailers want more details, they can e-mail us for more information at:

ChaosWars@RalPartha.com

We will be glad to help them get these high quality, affordable pewter miniatures on their shelves. If your local store is unable to carry the line, you can always order directly from us at www.RalPartha.com

The CHAOS WARS setting is a world where a Greater Demon has torn holes in reality, allowing forces from various places, times, and realities to spill in.

This gives you a large canvas to game on. Our long term goal is to provide the rules and miniatures so that every player and collector can build the fantasy army or warband that they've always wanted.

Do you want Elves with cannons? Sure, we can help you with that. Want Dwarf Archers, Sea Monsters, or packs of Dragon Cavalry? If you can dream it up, we can help you make it a reality.

Introductory and Advanced Rules

The Classic Introductory CHAOS WARS rules are great for fantasy and historical games, but also allows for special games such as Sci-Fi armies vs. Fantasy races vs. Historical forces. By paying appropriate points costs, the game allows you to put almost any miniature you want on the table.

The Advanced Rules add more detail, and allow you to perform complex maneuvers, add many spell and weapon options, and explore the world of the Chaos Wars. All of our rules, including optional rules for campaigns, new skirmish settings, and scenarios will be available as free downloadable PDFs at www.RalPartha.com.

DEMO RULES

A quick and simplified version of the classic rules, to sample the game's mechanics. Available to download at: www.ralpartha.com under 'Chaos-Wars' on the header.

CLASSIC INTRODUCTORY RULES

Releasing in October 2015

ADVANCED RULES

Releasing in very early 2016

Weapons Line

Several of our figures come with open hands, allowing you to equip them with many different weapons. Our new Dungeon Equipment line begins with Pikes, Spears, Swords, Halberds, and Axes.

We will be adding more new weapons periodically.

Mercenary Units / Starter Sets

Starting in July, we are releasing CHAOS WARS Army Starter Sets. The packs contain 12 infantry or 6 cavalry figures of the same race, with an assortment of troops. Gamers and painters will find these sets a great jumping-on point to explore the CHAOS WARS.

The first sets are: Undead, Dwarves, Chaos, Centaurs, Samurai, Ratlings, and Human Knights. More sets will be released each month, and sets of the Elves, Orcs, and Goblins will be available once our kickstarter orders are fulfilled.
